Messrs. Bultman, Furstenburg and Ducker are back from the North.

The Bill of Lading for the new Town Bell was received yesterday morning. . Mr. H. S. Burden, of Providence, died on Saturday night last.

Two colored people have died in this vicinity, during the past week. The Sun rises at 5.40 and sets at half past six o'clock, to-day. One of our neighbors seems to have opened a fruit-canning department.

Our modest merchants must not be ashamed of the compliments paid to them in this issue. Next week we will pay our respects to advertising cards from abroad. Our streets were thronged on Saturday last by our country cousins.

The Watchman and Southron is being so highly spoken of that we are beginning to think our paper a first rate one. Yet we are working hard for its improvement. Prof. Tremaine, who exhibited his "Sun

It won't make any difference how high corn goes up if there is none to be bought. We publish some new Wilmington cards this week. Others from Charleston and Columbia will appear next week.

Dr. Lewis G. Wood, of Columbia, was in most excellent tooth powder.

Mr. Chas. T. Mason, Jr., is erecting a handsome residence on the lot adjoining that of Mr. D. Jas. Winn. Mrs. Ridgill, wife of Mr. Napoleon A. Rid-gill; of Manning, died at that place on the morning of the 5th instant. Mr. Lycurgus Broaddus, who has been spending several weeks at his home in Kentucky, returned Monday evening, much improved in health. We are told that there has been for several days past a regular stampede for Dr. Hugh-son's office. Everybody has the vaccination mada. It don't cost anything to be vaccinated, and it is fashionable also. One of our Sumter astronomers says the star of Bethlehem which is creating such a miration in the heavens just before daylight, is nothing more than Venus on a little swell. We are warm-very warm to-day. Please pardon us for saying this little piece of poetry; "O for a lodge in some vast wilderness, Some boundless contiguity of shade."

The New Grocery.

Messrs. J. M. Spann and J. P. Russell were busy all day yesterday fixing up their store, preparatory to laying in a full stock of heavy and fancy groceries.

Mr. J. M. Spann is a grandson of Capt. J. Ga. D. McFaddin and the late Henry Spann, and is well known to the most of our community. Mr. Russell is a native of Virginia, who for several years past has been in the mercantile business in Baltimore, and is also the brotherin-law of Dr. A. Louis Blanding. These works were established in 1847 by Messrs. Geo. Sinclair and James Anderson and purchased by me in the year 1856, and from that time till now carried on successfully by myself. My friends and customers will bear witness of the large and suspendous jobs exccuted by me. It was at my works where the largest and almost only job of its class ever executed in this city was done, viz: the making of the pipes for the City Water Works in the year 1858. In the branch of BELL FOUNDING, I can say that I have made the largest bells ever east in the State, such as the bell for the City Hall in Columbia. My stock of patterns for that has ever been in Columbia.

ARCHITECTURAL WORK, COLUMNS FOR STOKE FRONTS, is large and various, and in RAILINGS FOR BALCON ES. GARDENS AND CEMETR-RIES I have the largest variety and most mod-ern patterns; many of these are patented and I have purel used the right for this State. In the machine line I can furnish my pat-
